The Living Last Supper

A Worship Service for Holy Communion

Ruth Elaine Schram

One of Christianity's most significant events was brilliantly portrayed by Leonardo Da Vinci centuries ago: The Last Supper. This Renaissance masterpiece is brought to life in Ruth Elaine Schram's remarkable work, The Living Last Supper.

The music deftly and passionately captures the pathos of the event while, one by one, the disciples speak, expressing their innermost thoughts with brief but poignant monologues that also portray their incredulous astonishment at Jesus' assertion that one of them would betray him that fateful night.

On Maundy Thursday evening at 6:30pm--Beautiful Savior Lutheran Church Chancel Choir and Drama Group, together with the worship team will present The Living Last Supper. This dramatic worship service with communion will also be the time that several young people will receive their first communion as well.

All are welcome--Please come!
